ABSTRACT

Two hundred and forty-five entries comprise this bibliography on doctoral dissertations on urban and minority education. This document is a guide to the literature on urban and minority education which is not easily accessible to educational researchers, decision makers, and practitioners. It brings together significant works in this area which appear in the January 1975 through May 1976 issues of Dissertation Abstracts International (the abstract journal of the University Microfilms doctoral dissertation data base). University Microfilms order numbers are included at the end of the citations, where appropriate. A subject index by citation number and a statement on the availability of the cited materials are included on a separate page. (Author/AM)

Doctoral Dissertations on Urban and Minority Education

*Compiled by Kimberly Fahrer and Robert Vivolo

This bibliography is meant to be a guide to the literature on urban and minority education which is not easily accessible to educational researchers, decision-makers, and practitioners. It brings together significant works in this area which appeared in the January 1975 through May 1976 issues of Dissertation Abstracts International (the abstract journal of the University Microfilms doctoral dissertation data base). University Microfilms order numbers have been included at the end of each citation, where appropriate. A subject index by citation number and a statement on the availability of the cited materials are included on a separate page. For information about a companion bibliography of 1975 unpublished reports in the ERIC system, announced in Resources on Education (January 1975 through April 1976), write to Clearinghouse, Box 40.
